

How closely do the two legs actually meet?

Top: the 3D distance of closest approach between the two fitted lines. Bottom: the y disagreement at their transverse crossing (the transverse separation there is zero by construction).